

OUTDOOR TRAILS

Some roads lead to small towns. Others lead to wide-open water, quiet campgrounds, rugged trails, and some of Oklahoma's most beautiful scenery. Whether you're casting a line, launching a boat, hiking a trail, watching wildlife, or simply enjoying the view, adventure is never far away in Great Plains Country. Use this map to discover lakes, outdoor destinations, and wildlife management areas across Southwest Oklahoma—then see where the road leads.

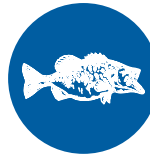

The Road to the Wild Side of the Plains

- 1. Black Kettle National Grasslands
- 2. Washita National Wildlife Refuge
- 3. Washita County Wildlife Management Area
- 4. Fort Cobb Wildlife Management Area
- 5. Sandy Sanders Wildlife Management Area
- 6. Altus-Lugert Wildlife Management Area
- 7. Mountain Park Wildlife Management Area
- 8. Wichita Mountains Wildlife Refuge
- 9. Gist Wildlife Management Area
- 10. Hackberry Flat Wildlife Management Area & Wetland Center
- 11. Waurika Wildlife Management Area

The Road to Where the Water Calls

- 1. Foss Lake
- 2. Lake Elk City
- 3. Fort Cobb Lake
- 4. Lake Chickasha
- 5. Hunter Lake
- 6. Lake Altus-Lugert
- 7. Lake Hall
- 8. Tom Steed Lake
- 9. Lake Frederick

- 10. Lake Lawtonka
- 11. Lake Elmer Thomas
- 12. Lake Ellsworth
- 13. Waurika Lake
- 14. Comanche Lake
- 15 - 18. Duncan Lake, Lake Humphreys, Clear Creek Lake, Lake Fuqua

The Road to Endless Adventure

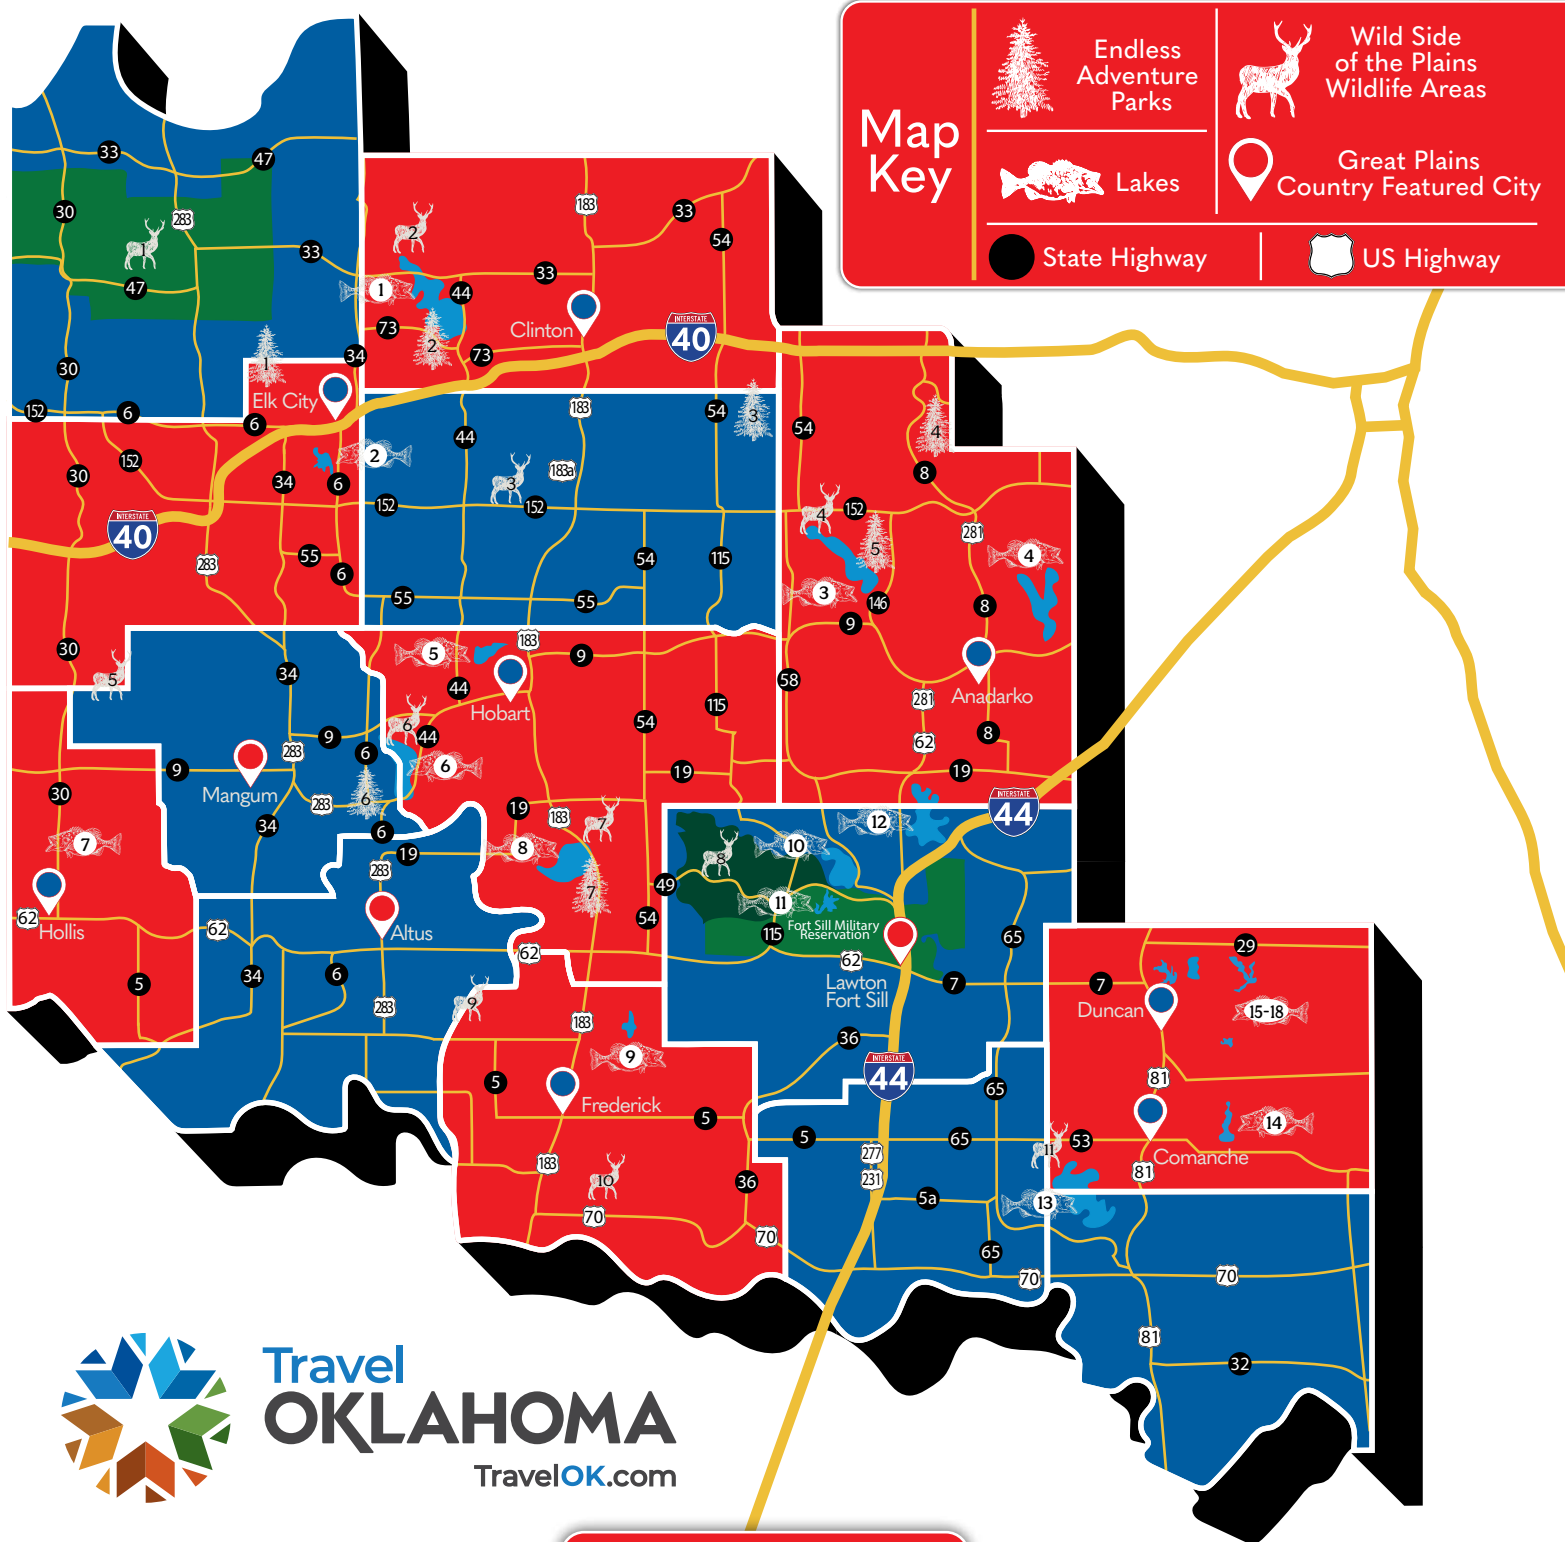

- 1. Ackley Park
- 2. Foss State Park
- 3. Crowder Lake University Park
- 4. Red Rock Canyon Adventure Park
- 5. Fort Cobb State Park
- 6. Quartz Mountain State Park
- 7. Great Plains State Park

WHERE WILL
 THE ROAD...
 TAKE YOU?

Image by Richard Taylor/Sticky's Photography

Travel
OKLAHOMA
 TravelOK.com